

SCI Young Lipid Scientist Award 2018

Deadline for applications: Friday 4 May 2018

Presentations by shortlisted candidates: Monday 18 June 2018

This award is to recognise excellence and emerging talent in research related to lipids, in any field across the physical and life sciences and engineering. Example areas include, but are not restricted to: neuroscience, digestion and metabolism, crystallisation of triacylglycerols, lipid oxidation, functioning of phospholipid membranes, compositional analysis, processing and disease prevention.

Applicants are requested to submit a 300 word abstract of the results of their research, on a Lipids related theme, to awards@soci.org by the closing date of Friday 4 May 2018. Applicants must either be a UK citizen or be studying for their PhD in the UK.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to present a 15 minute oral presentation of their research, with accompanying PowerPoint presentation, during the SCI Young Lipid Scientist Award event on Monday 18 June 2018. All those invited to give oral presentations will be refunded reasonable travel expenses (2nd class off-peak return rail fare), and also receive one year's complimentary membership of SCI.

The winner will receive a prize of £100, a certificate, and an opportunity to give an oral presentation at EuroFedLipid 2018 in Belfast, UK, for which SCI would cover expenses up to the value of £400 to attend.

This event is organised by SCI's Lipid Group. Enquiries concerning the award can be made to Andy Stapley at A.G.F.Stapley@Lboro.ac.uk.
